UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SERVICE AND REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENTS

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

JULY 1936

[This publication is issued monthly for the dissemination of information, instructions, rulings, etc., concerning the work of the Bureau of Animal Industry. Free distribution is limited to persons in the service of the Bureau, establishments at which the Federal meat inspection is conducted, public officers whose duties make it desirable for them to have such information, and journals especially concerned. Others desiring copies may obtain them from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., at 5 cents each or 25 cents a year (foreign, 60 cents). A supply will be sent to each official in charge of a station or branch of the Bureau service, who should promptly distribute copies to members of his force. A file should be kept at each station for reference.]

PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE PACKERS AND STOCKYARDS ACT

Docket no. 537.—In re Jack Cohen and Jacob Simels & Brothers, New York, N. Y. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on March 4, 1936, instituted a proceeding under title V of the Packers and Stockyards Act, as amended, and ordered that a hearing be held for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of any and all rates and charges of respondents who are engaged in the business of unloading live poultry in commerce in New York and Jersey City which have been designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as coming within the provisions of title V. A hearing was held from March 23 to 27. On May 12 an order was issued directing that the hearing be reopened for the purpose of taking further testimony. Accordingly, another hearing was held from May 19 to 22. Recommendations as to findings, conclusion, and order were served on respondents who waived oral argument and asked that the recommendations be adopted and ordered into effect. On July 27 the Acting Secretary issued an order to be effective August 3 prescribing a new schedule of rates and charges for respondents which are lower than those now on file.

Docket no. 540.—In re Lee Salisbury, Chillicothe, Ohio. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture issued an order on May 15, 1936, suspending respondent from registration as a market agency for 6 months with leave, however, during said period to apply for a revocation of this suspension upon filing a reasonable bond or furnishing other satisfactory indemnity to secure the performance of his obligations incurred as a market agency. As the Scioto Live Stock Sales Co. is now clearing the business of respondent at the Scioto Live Stock Sales Co. Stock Yards, Chillicothe, Ohio, the above-mentioned order has been modified so as to permit respondent to engage in business as a market agency at said stockyard.

Docket no. 542.—In re Calumet Poultry & Egg Co., Inc., Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on May 15, 1936, directed that a hearing be held to allow the applicant an opportunity to show cause why its application for license made under the act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, amendatory to the Packers and Stockyards Act, should not be denied. A hearing was held on June 1. On the basis of the record made at the hearing, it was found that the applicant had complied with the requirements of the act and is financially able to fulfill the obligations that it would incur as a licensee; therefore, on July 30 the applicant was notified that a license for buying, selling, and handling poultry would be issued to its firm.

Docket no. 544.—In re Frost Brothers, Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on May 15, 1936, directed that a hearing be held to allow the applicant an opportunity to show cause why its application for license made under the act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, amendatory to the Packers and Stockyards Act, should not be denied. A hearing was held on June 2. On the basis of the record made at the hearing, it was found that the applicant had complied with the requirements of the act and is financially able to fulfill the obligations that it would incur as a licensee; therefore, on July 11 the applicant was notified that a license for buying, selling, and handling poultry would be issued to its firm.

Docket no. 545.—In re Lenters and Sons, Inc., Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on May 15, 1936, directed that a hearing be held to allow the applicant an opportunity to show cause why its application for license made under the act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, amendatory to the Packers and Stockyards Act, should not be denied. A hearing was held on June 2. On the basis of the record made at the hearing, it was found that the applicant had complied with the requirements of the act and is financially able to fulfill the obligations that it would incur as a licensee; therefore, on July 15 the applicant was notified that a license for buying, selling, and handling poultry would be issued to its firm.

Docket no. 546.—In re Roy Murphree, Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on May 15, 1936, directed that a hearing be held to allow the applicant an opportunity to show cause why his application for license made under the act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, amendatory to the Packers and Stockyards Act, should not be denied. A hearing was held on June 3. On the basis of the record made at the hearing, it was found that the applicant had complied with the requirements of the act and is financially able to fulfill the obligations that he would incur as a licensee; therefore, on July 11 the applicant was notified that a license for buying, selling, and handling poultry would be issued to him.

Docket no. 547.—In re Wisconsin Produce House, Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on May 15, 1936, directed that a hearing be held to allow the applicant an opportunity to show cause why its application for license made under the act of Congress approved August 14, 1935, amendatory to the Packers and Stockyards Act, should not be denied. A hearing was held on June 3. On the basis of the record made at the hearing, it was found that the applicant had complied with the requirements of the act and is financially able to fulfill the obligations that it would incur as a licensee; therefore, on July 15 the applicant was notified that a license for buying, selling, and handling poultry would be issued to its firm.

Docket no. 548.—In re Shippers Live Stock Commission Co., Mississippi Valley Stock Yards Co., Inc., and C. P. Poland, St. Louis, Mo. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on May 2, 1936, issued an inquiry alleging that respondents had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act in that they had engaged in and used an unfair and deceptive practice and device in connection with the buying and selling of livestock in commerce. A hearing was held on June 8. On July 22, C. P. Poland was ordered to pay complainant, the Oklahoma Live Stock Commission Co. damages in the sum of $507.50 with interest thereon at the rate of 6 percent per annum from February 1, 1936, until paid, the said sum to be paid as reparation within 30 days from the date of the order. C. P. Poland was also ordered to cease and desist from failing to pay drafts for livestock in all cases where he or his agents or employees agree to pay such drafts. The complaint against the Shippers Live Stock Commission Co. and the Mississippi Valley Stock Yards Co., Inc., was dismissed.

Docket no. 556.—In re Ed Moore, Harrodsburg, Ky. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on June 29, 1936, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act in that he had failed, neglected, and refused to execute and maintain a reasonable bond to suitable trustees or to furnish any other form of satisfactory indemnity to secure the performance of his obligations incurred as a market agency and dealer. On July 8 respondent admitted the truth of the matters and things alleged and waived a hearing thereon. On July 29 respondent was suspended from registration as a market agency and dealer for 6 months with leave, however, during said period to apply for a revocation of this suspension on filing a reasonable bond or furnishing other satisfactory indemnity. Respondent was also ordered to cease and desist from doing business as a market agency and dealer without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond or furnishing other satisfactory guaranty.
